APM London Branch 2019/20 to the future

APM London branch tries to cover a diverse range of 'topics' or 'workstreams' as the most requested by members. We currently align ourselves within Higher Education, through to Corporate. Our newest topic slotting in to this timeline shaped up in 2019 to focus on the S of Small Medium Enterprises (SME) .

We do this in collaboration with APM Branches Team and the key areas within APM IBIS house, or our Specific Interest Groups (SIGs), other APM branches & external bodies.

We have a great team of volunteers who are able to flex their efforts as their day jobs demand. As well as thinking about what you can offer, decide what you want to get from your volunteer experience as well when applying.

We look forward to welcoming future guests at our events and volunteers.

APM London Branch Chair
